

CRUISE LINE COMPARISON CHART

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISE LINE

A cruise line renowned for its innovative "megaships" offers high-energy activities, diverse entertainment, and family-friendly dining options. Its large vessels feature attractions such as rock-climbing walls, surfing simulators, zip lines, and ice-skating rinks. With a global presence and itineraries to worldwide destinations, it operates private island resorts like Perfect Day at CocoCay in the Bahamas, enhancing its reputation as a fun-filled resort-at-sea experience.

CELEBRITY CRUISES

A cruise line providing a "modern luxury" experience with premium service and high-end dining on stylish ships, focusing on an elegant atmosphere rather than family-oriented thrills. It features innovative designs like the Magic Carpet on Edge-class ships and emphasizes global cuisine and wellness. Catering mainly to well-traveled adults and couples, it also accommodates families seeking a refined cruise experience.

PRINCESS CRUISES

Experience a luxurious cruise line that offers a "MedallionClass" journey, featuring a wearable device that enhances personalized services such as expedited boarding. Ideal for couples, retirees, and families seeking a leisurely, destination-oriented adventure, particularly in Alaska. Renowned for its exceptional service and varied itineraries and classic attractions like Movies Under the Stars, famously popularized by "The Love Boat."

DISNEY CRUISE LINE

Offers a premium, family-oriented vacation with Disney's storytelling at sea. The fleet includes uniquely designed ships featuring modern comforts, Broadway entertainment, immersive dining, and beloved Disney characters. Cruises cater to all ages with kids' clubs, adults-only areas, and family activities, backed by Disney's renowned service.

VIKING

A premium cruise line offering elegant, destination-focused journeys on rivers and oceans, targeting a mature adult demographic. You'll find an emphasis on cultural enrichment with included shore excursions and lectures. Ships feature modern Scandinavian design with a relaxed atmosphere, fine dining, and personalized service, appealing to well-traveled adults seeking a quiet, culturally rich vacation.
